

This term we are going to be finding out about the wonderful world of Dick King Smith and why he was so significant in people's lives.

Did you know Dick King Smith was born on 27th March 1922?

That's 100 years ago and his books and stories are still very much enjoyed by children and adults across the world today!

Have you and your family read any stories written by Dick King Smith?

Through our topic we are going to discover how we can enquire about the past, use maps and atlases to help us become geographers, investigate materials and properties in Science and explore our creative talents in Music and Art...and so much more...